

THE RANDOLPH JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1896.

LOCAL NEWS.

JOHN ROSS has again gone into the grocery trade in this place. John is a clever business man.

ANDREW FAVORITE is building a house on Railroad street.

Boots and shoes made to order at Frank Carter's.

The stone pavement to the depot is all laid, except in front of Mr. Snedeker's lot. The pedestrians are getting anxious to see this completed.

W. R. WAY & Co. have just received a large lot of fine peach loaf potatoes, which are now for sale. Call and get a supply.

The Indianapolis Herald office has been sold to a lot of leading Democrats. The paper is to be under the control of L. Develin, of the Cambridge Mirror, as he is the principal stockholder.

BRADBURY continues to supply the world and the rest of mankind with saddles, bridles, harness, etc., at his old stand north of the public square.

RESIGNED.—Homer Ward has resigned his position as conductor of one of the trains on the Bellefontaine Railroad. Mr. Ward is one of the oldest and most popular conductors on the road. The traveling community will be sorry to know that he has resigned.

CHILDREN'S shoes, misses' boots and gaiters, of all sizes and grades, for sale cheap at Frank Carter's, east side of the public square.

ELISHA MARTIN has sold his large ware-house, in Winchester, to Nathaniel Heaton for $7,000. We learn that Mr. Heaton will probably turn it into a flouring mill; if so, we wish him success.

FIVE hundred deeds in the Recorder's office unpaid for. n22-2t

We have an article from our occasional correspondent at Fairview on the subject of temperance which is very good, but the larger part of it is quoted. We published it only a short time ago, and as it occupies two-thirds of the article, we decline publishing it. If we had not published it we would do so now.

TURNPIKE ELECTION.—Our readers will notice that the time for holding the election for Directors in the Winchester and Deerfield Turnpike Company has been changed from the last Saturday in November to December 17, 1896. Let all bear this in mind.

As good groceries as can be found anywhere in this country, are always kept by W. R. Way & Co.

KNECHT & BROTHER have sold their steam saw mill to Messrs. H. H. Neff and Asa Teal who will put in new machinery with two circular saws. A first-class mill has been wanted here for some time. We are pleased to chronicle the fact that we are to have one.

NOTICE.—Those having deeds in my office unpaid for, will please call and get and settle for the same, and oblige yours much, F. A. ENGLE, n22-2t R. R. C.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.—The National Convention of this organization met at Indianapolis on the 20th. It was largely attended; General Palmer, of Illinois, was the President. The proceedings were harmonious and interesting.

Men and boys' boots, of superior quality, for sale cheap at Frank Carter's.

We trust we shall soon be able to say to our readers that the iron for our north and south road has been purchased. Judge Cotgrove, the President, will start for New York in a few days, in connection with the sale of bonds and purchase of iron. We hope he will meet with success.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The school in the North Ward now numbers one hundred and fifty-four scholars; in the South Ward, one hundred. We see some boys in attendance who are large enough to smoke a pipe with a stem one foot long. That's very encouraging; we almost wish we were a lady teacher.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL.—We have been receiving this popular monthly during the last year; and we now, near the commencement of a new volume, desire to say to our readers who wish to take a child's paper that there is no better published. The reading matter is of a high order, just such as should go into the hands of children. Mr. Sewell, the publisher, is offering very fine inducements to subscribers for the new year. He has been at great expense in producing a very fine engraving entitled "The Heavenly Cherubs," which he offers to each subscriber; it can be seen by calling at our office. Terms, $1 per year. Address Alfred T. Sewell, Chicago, Illinois.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—We received a letter from Dr. Converse, President of the Union and Loganport Railroad, and from him we learn that he has over two miles of the track laid down, and is pushing the work as fast as possible. The Dr. is determined to complete this important work at the earliest day. Energy is his watchword.

For the best ladies' shoes, boots and gaiters, go to F. B. Carter's.

THE article sent us entitled "Astronomic" is declined. It exhibits a good degree of talent and a knowledge of the subject caricatured, but it would fail to interest the general reader.

JENKS says: "That girls and boys who walk the streets and sit in church with their mouths working like flax-brakes, and who are continually gawking around and giggling at every thing they see or hear, do so because they do not know what else to do with themselves." Jenks has certainly been taking items some place.

By a letter from John M. Lucas we learn that the farmers in Grant county are very much delayed in their fall work on account of rain. Accept thanks for a renewal of subscription.

BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.—Our town has never been so well accommodated in this important business as it is now. Mr. F. B. Carter has been keeping one of the largest stocks in the county, which, for good quality and cheapness, is not equalled.

"O, SWEET," said a young emerald-green when laying his arm around his lady love's waist. It is not known whether the fellow survived the shock or not. Stebbins says he has tried it several times, but never could survive it.

FARMERS, call in at W. R. Way & Co.'s grocery and spend a little time. They are always glad to see you.

DELINQUENT INTEREST.—We would call the attention to the fact that the Auditor is preparing a list of delinquencies of interest on loans of school funds for publication. Those who wish to save this expense, had better call and pay up, as the Auditor has no discretion. It is made his duty under the law to do so; but he is anxious to save the borrowed cost. Therefore, let all interested call at once and settle up.

SELLING OFF AT COST.—J. D. & G. U. Carter have marked down their goods at cost, and will now sell for cash at those figures. Their object is to sell off their present stock of goods before going into their new brick business house, as they desire to bring on an entire new stock the first of January for their fine business rooms. Therefore let every body in the county, and out of it, go to Carter's for cheap goods. There is no gas about this, as we have been authorized by these gentlemen to say so to our readers.

SNOW.—On last Thursday and Friday we had a notice served on us that winter was approaching. The notice was in the shape of snow flakes. This reminds us that we had, during our boyhood days, rode in a sleigh when there was snow on the ground. It is strange how these old recollections will come back to us. We remember it just as well as if it had been twenty years since that time. Those were pleasant days, and their recollections sometimes make us think we would like to take a little ride now; but we would be too modest to ask any body to take us unless they had a good, warm buffalo robe to wrap the lady in who was to sit on the same seat with us. We would think it the height of impudence to make such a request under any other circumstances.

EDUCATIONAL.—The educational meeting on last Saturday evening was not well attended by parents. This is wrong. Those who patronize the schools should certainly attend these meetings, as it is to their interest to hear suggestions as to the best course in educating their children. It costs nothing to hear; and if the suggestions are not good, there is no compulsion in adopting them. A second meeting has been called for next Sunday evening, at the M. E. Church. Let parents come out; it makes no difference what schools you send to, as this meeting is in the interest of any school. Addresses will be delivered by several gentlemen.

IMPROVED RUSTIC WINDOW SHADE.—When at Indianapolis last week we were shown this new style of window shade, now manufactured by Messrs. Sunwalt and Werden, of No. 26 East Washington street. We had not seen any thing like them before, and were much impressed with their beauty, as also their durability and cheapness.

This shade has heretofore been manufactured by Messrs. Green & Vroman, who have sold their interest to Sunwalt & Werden, book sellers and stationers, and general dealers in wall, window paper and window shades of all descriptions. These gentlemen propose to manufacture for the retail trade of Indiana.

The improvement consists of a lap, which renders the shade impervious to the light, and at the same time prevents the wood from warping. These gentlemen intend to establish an agency in Winchester. We therefore recommend those who would like at first rate, durable shade, to either call upon these gentlemen at Indianapolis or their agent in Winchester, who will probably be Mr. S. Lucas, at the Post Office.

CHRISTIAN TIMES AND WITNESS.—This is one of the best religious papers we know of. It is, to some extent, a denominational paper; but we think there are but few Christians who would not be well satisfied with it as a good, live paper. No family can read it without being greatly benefited. We have taken it for several years, and know whereof we speak. We say to all, and especially the Baptists, subscribe for the Times and Witness. Terms $2.00 per year. Address Church & Goodman, Chicago, Illinois.

THE queensware house in Winchester is at Thomas & Son's.

For the best gloves in the market, go to Routh & Bannister's.

MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—Several gentlemen and ladies are about to form a musical association in this place, in connection with the M. E. Church and Sabbath-school. The association will meet on Friday evenings, at the M. E. Church. We trust that all who have a desire to learn to sing, will hand in their names for membership, as there will be a constitution and by-laws adopted for the government of the association. The committee appointed are, Miss Rosa Cortom, Miss Belle Rossman, Miss Ellen Ferris, A. J. Neff and R. B. Morrow.

BOYS, if you want to know where you can buy good things all the time, and especially for Christmas, go to Hatt & Kinnear's, and you will be sure to get something good to eat in the shape of nuts, candies, raisins, figs, gums, &c. They are preparing for boys and girls for Christmas. Recollect the place. The best of coffee, tea, sugar, &c., always kept there.

MODEST.—A strange lady stepped into a jewelry store in this place a day or two ago, and handing the proprietor a small revolver, requested to know if he could put it in good order, it being out of repair. The proprietor asked her what repairing it needed, when she modestly replied, "It won't stand roostered." She doubtless meant that the pistol wouldn't stand cocked.

FRESH beef, pork, mutton, sausage, lard, tallow, etc., always on hand at Stewart Way's meat market, one door south of Bowen's store room.

A splendid stock of ladies', misses and children's shoes, cheaper than any, at Routh & Bannister's.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—The holidays are approaching, and as a necessary consequence, Arthur Quick is approaching with just such presents as children always want in the shape of books, toys, balls, &c. A splendid list of all these things is now being received at this house, so all the children in town and country can be accommodated. Recollect, children, Quick's is the place.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. S. Guthrie will preach at Bradbury's Hall next Sabbath at the usual hours, morning and evening. The public respectfully invited.

Now is the time to buy your groceries. Way & Stakebake have now one of the best stocks of groceries in the county, and to those who need articles in that line, had better call there and get a supply. You will get no second-rate articles there, as they never keep such. They hold this to be a fact, that business men who always keep the best, will always get the best customers.

LADIES' dress goods, the cheapest and best, at Routh & Bannister's.

Good Templars Convention. We promised our readers two weeks ago, to give them the proceedings of the above Convention, but, owing to the fact that the Secretary sent the only copy of the resolutions preserved to the Temperance Journal, at Indianapolis, we have been unable to fulfill our promise. We regret this, as it will doubtless disappoint many who have been patiently awaiting its appearance. The proceedings of the Convention should first have been published in our paper, as this could have been done in time to allow the Temperance Journal to copy it, that paper being a semi-monthly. We trust our friends will accept this explanation as sufficient.

Those who now desire to buy pianos, organs, melodeons or other instruments, cheaper at this time, when they wish to make presents to their daughters, as the holidays are approaching, should go to Butterfield & Co., who are now offering extra inducements at 22 West Washington street, Indianapolis.

For nice furs, go to Routh & Bannister's.

Winchester Teachers. The schools in this county are very largely represented by teachers from our town. Miss Lizzie Towell has been chosen teacher at Clark's school-house, four miles north of town, and will commence her school on Monday next. Miss Lizzie Ludy opens a school two miles north of Winchester next Monday.

J. W. Henderson will open school at the Hagerman school-house, Monday next.

Miss Nettie Fitzpatrick is teaching near Fairland.

Miss Adda Fitzpatrick has charge of the school at Irvin's school-house.

Miss Mollie Hale is teaching at the Coats' school-house.

Miss Mollie Ludy is teaching at the Butterworth school-house.

I. P. Watt has charge of the school in the Pugh district.

Several young gentlemen recently left Mr. Ferris' school for the purpose of teaching, but as we have not their names, we can not say in what districts they are located.

In Winchester, Rev. J. S. Ferris has charge of the school at the Seminary. Miss Ellen and Miss Emma Ferris are teaching at the north school-house.

Miss Anna Cross and Miss Belle Rossman are teaching at the south school-house.

CHANGE OF TIME.—We received the Dayton & Union R. R. time table, but too late to correct our time table on the first page.

Trains leave Union for Dayton at 8:10 A. M., and at 12 M. Leave Dayton 7:55 A. M., and 3:10 P. M., arriving at Union at 10:35 A. M., and 5:10 P. M.

HUNTING.—J. J. Cheney, Esq., authorizes us to say his name appeared in the "notice to hunters," without his knowledge or consent. He says he has no objections to persons hunting on his land, if they do not destroy his timber.

Magazines. Arthur's Magazine for 1897, is a fine number. This popular book has, within the last year, been enlarged and very much improved, until it now ranks with any published in the United States. Indeed, with us, it is regarded as par excellence. And to parents we recommend this fine monthly, as entirely safe to introduce into the domestic circle. The fashion department of this magazine is in the hands of Madame Demorest.

Terms, $2.50; 3 copies $6.50; copies and to one agent, $10. Each person sending $2.50 will get a fine picture entitled "The Departure of the Swallows." Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 323 Walnut street, Philadelphia, Penn.

A New Magazine for Children. The Children's Hour, is the title of a new magazine published by T. S. Arthur. It is a splendidly magazine, and is winning golden opinions from the public press, and those who have had an opportunity of perusing it. Will not our citizens get up a club and send for it? It is sufficient to say that the name of Arthur is a guarantee enough to every one who desires a good, moral work for their children. Some of the best writers will contribute to its columns. Terms, $1.25; 5 copies $5; 10 copies $10. Address T. S. Arthur, 323 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

Teachers' Association. Believing a Teachers' Association in every county to be a matter of no little importance, and that such an association, if well attended, would be very beneficial to teachers and others who feel interested in the cause of education, I would suggest that a proper step be taken for calling a Teachers' Association, and that each teacher use his or her influence, as far as practicable, in sustaining the organization. I am fully convinced that if teachers, and others who feel an interest in the up-building of the cause, would meet at least once a month, that it would add much in producing harmony and interest throughout the schools in the county.

Schmucker's History of the War.

A few days since we had the pleasure to examine Dr. Schmucker's work, and find it a book for the times, profusely and splendidly illustrated, and of great value. A wonderful popularity, by an able author, connecting as it does the thrilling incidents of the war with the heroes of our homes and hearts. It should find a place in every library and upon every table. It contains besides a full and complete history of the war, from the first shot fired, to the final struggle to put down the great rebellion, the causes which gave rise to the war, reaching back as far as the year 1816. Numerous beautiful and finely executed steel plate engravings and wood cuts, representing battle scenes and naval engagements. Every one who desires to be thoroughly posted on this great era in our history should subscribe the first opportunity. A. W. Smith, or one of his agents, will call upon our citizens with the above work and solicit subscribers, and we are sure every one of our readers will at once order a copy of Mr. Smith's general agent for Central Ohio, Randolph and Wayne Counties, Indiana.

P. S.—If the agent fails to call upon any person who wishes the work, he can obtain it by addressing him at Quincy, Ohio, n16
